

Hey everybody,

Before we get to the episode, I want to take a moment to address the June 24th, 2022 Supreme Court decision to overturn Roe versus Wade. This decision stripped away the right to have a safe and legal abortion.

Everyone should have the freedom to decide what's best for themselves and their families, including when it comes to ending a pregnancy. This decision has dire consequences for individual health and safety, and could have harsh repercussions for other landmark decisions.

Restricting access to comprehensive reproductive care, including abortion, threatens the health and independence of all Americans. And if you came here just for a Fantasy show and think this is irrelevant, I want to say that roughly half of us on this show have uteruses and just about all of us inhabit bodies. And if we don't have the ability to make autonomous decisions about those bodies, then - aside from being a grave violation of human rights - that makes projects like this one functionally impossible.

You can learn more about all of this by visiting podvoices dot help. If you're able to support others, please consider donating to abortion funds. I'm gonna throw a few links in the shownotes.

We encourage you to speak up, take care, and spread the word.

Ok, with that being said, there's no ads today. I did want to take a second to thank everyone who helps us make the show with their donations at Patreon.com/onceandfuturenerd. In particular I'd like to shout out John AP, Cecilia, Kameron S, Kate M, Orlando, and Jay L.

Now onto a Change of Scenery, Pt. 2. We'll be back with a Change of Scenery, Pt. 3 on August 28th, and I'll talk to you then.
